

Draws from the Dirichlet process are discrete distributions around the base measure (dashed)

Independent DPM draws: completed sticks mixed through normal kernels

